For convenience during their visit to the British Isles, Mr. Reid intends to buy an English car.

Let's Talk Things Over

When young people get married, these days, one of their biggest problems is to balance the budget. There are so many things they'd like to have — perhaps a radio, a new automobile, a home of their own. Or simpler things like furnishings for the den or the spare room, new drapes, or even going to the movies. Yes, there are all kinds of ways to spend money, and all kinds of nice things to buy.

But let me tell the young husband something. He's going to be a whole lot happier if he knows he's taken care of the little lady should anything happen to him. Don't forget, sometimes young husbands die. And I'm not being morbid. It's just plain common sense.

So, young fellow, just you look into your budgeting right now, and put some of your savings into a Sun Life insurance plan that'll take care of the little lady you'd do anything for. She's worth it.

Whatever your income, I think I can tell you how you can go about it.

Let's talk things over—today!

WEST SAANICH SCHOOL NEWS

(By Oswald Kockett and David Thomson)

On Wednesday evening, May 17, the Brentwood P.T.A. held a very enjoyable social in the West Saanich school. We also heard some fine piano selections by Louise Forsburg, of Div. 2 and by Moody, last year in Div. 1, also two very good Stan Holloway renditions by Tony Rouse, two lovely songs by Mrs. Tidman and a very good talk by Maurice Royston of Div. 1 on our social studies trip to town. Mr. Shiner showed beautiful colored films of Butchart's Gardens. Tea and cookies were served.

Div. 1 went with Mr. Hatch on a social studies trip. We went to the Empress Hotel, Museum, Archives, Mr. Hatch's house, Canadian Bakeries, CKDA, Victoria Public Library, Christ Church Cathedral and the Art Display. Then we went home. We really enjoyed the trip.

Educational Exhibits To Be Revived At Saanichton Fall Fair This Year

Educational exhibits at the Saanichton fall fair are to be revived this year. Since the beginning of the war this feature of the exhibition has lapsed. The North and South Saanich Agricultural Society has decided to revive the custom and an announcement was made in this respect recently by Capt. Nat Gray, section chairman.

BRENTWOOD

Paddy Patterson, 12 years old, was fishing off the power house wharf, recently, when he pulled in three cod in succession, 12, eight and six pounds.

The need for a new school in West Saanich was emphasized the other day when a grade 11 girl was overheard telling a small companion that, "I just have to pass this year or my little brother can't start school, there won't be any room for him in grade 1 if I don't pass."

Mrs. L. Hafer, Clark Road, was hostess to about 15 friends on Wednesday afternoon at a get acquainted tea, the guest of honor being her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Art. Hafer. The tea table, covered with a cloth of lace, was centered with a lovely arrangement of pink tulips with pink and white tapirs and was the object of many complimentary remarks from the guests.

Mr. Jackson has recently purchased the Major Woods property on Harding Lane and is building a home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sluggitt, West Road, were week-end guests of Mrs. Sluggitt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hadfield, Cliff Motel, Qualicum Beach.

Mrs. Ernie Lee, Verdier Avenue, and Mrs. M. Hamilton, Beach Drive, enjoyed a short holiday in Seattle this week. The trip over and return was made by T.C.A. The trip over was pleasant, but the high winds during the return trip made both ladies glad to feel solid ground under foot again.

The Brentwood Bay Store will be closed all day Wednesday, instead of the usual half day, while finishing touches are put to the alterations and improvements that have been made recently. A new merchandising policy will go into effect with the re-opening on Thursday, June 1. On that date the proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sivertson, will be host and hostess to their many customers and friends with an "inspection tea" that will continue throughout the day.

High winds and rough water were the cause of many fishing parties being cancelled this week-end at Brentwood Bay.

The Wise Gardener

Notes From Saanichton Experimental Station

Two crops, usually grouped with the vegetables, which are greatly appreciated as a dessert in the heat of summer are muskmelons and watermelons. While these are often considered "difficult" crops, it is quite feasible to grow them in your own garden, once their rather exacting requirements are understood. They are by nature, heat loving crops, and therefore, not primarily suited to our rather cool summers.

Extensive experiments have shown that for Vancouver Island conditions, mulch paper culture is necessary for best development. Be sure to use a proper mulch paper and avoid tar paper which will adversely affect the plants. The paper is most commonly used two sheets per row of plants, with space for the plants notched out at intervals along the margin where the two sheets overlap.

Alternatively the holes may be made along the centre of the paper, in which case only one width of paper is used per row. A generous quantity of compost or well rotted manure should be worked well into the soil, which is then raked smooth, and the paper laid.

Plants may be started indoors in early April and set out in the latter part of May, or seed may be sown direct in the garden. In the latter case, hotkaps, which are miniature individual greenhouses made of tough translucent paper, when set over the holes in the paper through which the seeds have been sown, will permit speedier germination and quicker growth of young plants. Gradual aeration by opening up a slit in each hotkap to "harden off" the plants, should precede their removal.

The wide spread use of 2, 4-D as a weedkiller in lawns prompts a warning as to the care which should be exercised in observing the strictest sanitation measures to ensure that no damage is done to other crops. Since the material, in its various forms, is tolerated to a greater degree by some horticultural crops than others, its use in proximity to susceptible subjects should be carefully guarded against. Injury may occur either due to failure to remove the entire residue from the spray tank, or permitting spray drift, no matter how small, from the area being sprayed to precious plants. The material may be applied by dust, and here drift is a serious factor to watch.

The safest procedure is to use separate equipment altogether, and not use it for sprays on plants. Alternatively the following recommendations are advocated by the Pacific Insecticide Institute, San Francisco, and indicate the stress being placed on rigid sanitation.

Rinse tank lines, screens, pump and nozzles thoroughly with water, preferably hot water; pressure chamber should be removed and drained; fill tank then with hot water and add two teaspoonfuls of household ammonia per quart of water and mix; spray out a small amount of solution and leave remainder in tank overnight. Baking soda may also be used for this purpose.

The equipment should be drained and rinsed several times with hot soapy water, then with kerosene, and finally with hot water and soap. Cleaning should be thoroughly and efficient for satisfactory results. Washings should be disposed of carefully to avoid injury to valuable plants or contamination of water supplies. Ester forms, being oily, are very apt to be absorbed by the hoses, regardless of whether the rest of the equipment is cleaned, it is advisable to use separate hose lines for 2, 4-D applications. If 2, 4-D is used in equipment having a wooden tank, the equipment should never be used for other materials.

DO:
Read labels carefully.
Follow label instructions.
Avoid drift hazards.
Employ only qualified applicators.
Know your weeds.
Know your crops.
Know sensitive plants.
Know volatility hazards.
Destroy used containers by burying them.
Apply at proper time.

DON'T:
Use more than necessary.
Be careless of adjacent crops.
Leave empty containers lying around.
Burn empty containers.
Use 2, 4-D spray equipment for other spraying.
Forget drift hazards.
Store near seeds, insecticides, fungicides or fertilizers.

'PHONE CABLE FACILITIES INCREASED BY RECORD 25%

Post-war telephone expansion in the B.C. Telephone Company System has been featured by the installation of a record amount of cable.

Despite shortages of this vital telephone material, cable containing over 100,000 miles of wire was placed throughout our system during the past five years — six times as much as was placed in the five years immediately prior to World War II.

Our cable facilities have been increased by a record 25 per cent since the end of World War II.

Fewer Eggs Are Eaten At Present

Poultry market report as supplied by the Dominion Marketing Service, Vancouver, follows:

Egg receipts at registered stations showed a decrease of 7 per cent on the lower mainland and 2 per cent on Vancouver Island, with a slight increase of 2 per cent in the interior.

The consumption of eggs within the city was a little slow, which is seasonal. Some quantities of locally produced eggs are still being stored, but consumption requirements being made up by carlot movements from Prairie points.

Prices remain unchanged.

Liberal supplies of fowl and broilers are arriving, with some small surplus of fowl being packed for storage. A portion of the fowl market is now being taken up by the retail sale of grade "A" and "B" yearling turkeys. This class of turkey is finding ready acceptance by the consumer trade but there is some evidence that supplies to the market are being curtailed and some strengthening of the market is looked for.

Women's Institutes To Hold Convention In Vancouver

All roads lead to Vancouver for the Tenth Biennial Convention of the Women's Institutes of British Columbia to be held at the University of British Columbia on June 6, 7, and 8.

Women from the Saanich Peninsula and Gulf Islands and delegates and members from the 213 Women's Institutes of B.C. will be present to enjoy the sessions.

The convention will be highlighted by the attendance of the Honourable and Mrs. H. R. Bowman, and the Federated president, Mrs. E. E. Morton, of Vegreville, Alberta.

The theme of the Federated Women's Institutes for 1949-51 is "Soil Conservation" and Dr. Blythe Eagles, dean of agriculture of the university, will act as chairman of a symposium on this subject on the first afternoon.

Hospital Insurance
In view of the wide interest in hospital insurance, Lloyd Detwiler, commissioner of hospital insurance, has agreed to address the Wednesday morning session. Following the tour of the new Home Economics building, tea will be served at Brock Hall, on Wednesday, June 7.

That evening an informal social evening has been arranged as a get-together in the Recreation hall.

This year the resolutions sent in will be reduced to 12 by the committee made up of Mrs. V. B. Robinson, of Penikese, and Mrs. J. D. McGuire, of Salmon Arm. The last provincial convention voted to have the resolutions handled in this way because of the multiplicity of resolutions which, in many cases, overlapped. All in all it promises to be a most interesting convention, and a big attendance is expected.

This year's four-month total of 31,592 as compared with 30,021 over the same period of 1949, shows an overall increase of five per cent.

This picture of the first aluminum plant in the British Empire was taken in 1900. That was only 14 years after Charles Martin Hall had discovered how to make aluminum cheaply by using electricity.

The plant was erected in semi-wilderness at Shawinigan Falls because the river was being harnessed to provide electricity. Aluminum was the first to use this power. Today Shawinigan Falls has many industries and is a bustling, thriving city.

Alcan, too, has been growing during these fifty years. Today the company has 12 plants providing jobs for 11,000 Canadians and supplying aluminum to more than 1000 independent Canadian manufacturers from coast to coast.

On its 50th Birthday, Alcan looks back over half a century of progress—and forward to continued growth with Canada.

ASH APPEALS FOR REVISION OF OLD AGE PENSION SYSTEM IN CANADA

Arthur J. R. Ash, M.L.A. for Saanich, has set out his views on the matter of old age pensions in the following communication to Premier Byron I. Johnson:

My dear Premier:

On the eve of the Dominion-Provincial conference may I take this opportunity as an elected representative of expressing my views on the question of old age pensions, which may be discussed at this important gathering. I would like you to know I am well aware of your keen interest in this matter which concerns so many people, young and old, in British Columbia.

As you know, the federal authorities set up a parliamentary committee on old age security this year. I understand this committee requested comments from the province on existing legislation and any other recommendations to the Old Age Pensions Act.

I was, therefore, disappointed to learn the government of British Columbia did not make any recommendations to this committee. However, I understand they informed the committee that they were in touch with the Federal Health Department in connection with the submission being prepared for this committee by the Canadian Welfare Council. May I suggest that your Government submit a brief to this body so that our views may be known to them.

I believe we in this province, considering our population, have a greater number of old age pensioners than in any other province. Our elder citizens are growing in numbers, due to modern medical science, and many people reaching 65 to 70 years can no longer find employment, even if they are fit, physically, to work.

Revision Needed

It is essential we stress upon the Dominion authorities that revision of Canada's old age pension system is needed. I think it can be truly said that a great majority favor abolition of the means test, including organizations such as the Canadian Chambers of Commerce and Canadian labor bodies.

In advocating abolition of the means test, I do so because it is discriminatory and penalizes the thrifty. Incidentally family allowances are paid without a means test.

The problem, as I see it, is what type of old age pensions should we adopt and how much are our people prepared to pay for this security?

Perhaps, the simplest procedure would be payment entirely by the federal government of a retirement pension to every Canadian citizen. It would eliminate the formidable book work necessary to keep track of each account under a contributory system, relieve provincial governments of much labor and expense, and insure uniform treatment to all Canadians.

There could be a three way contributory scheme, with employers, employees and governments sharing costs. Under such a scheme some provision would have to be made for the unemployed and those no longer employable. In such cases perhaps the present old age pension act would have to carry on until such time as the contributory scheme could take these people in.

At the present time we have 29,619 old age pensioners in this province, this includes about 600 blind pensioners. The potential number of old age pensioners in B.C. of 70 years and over is about 63,000 less than the above figure, or, an increase of 34,000, of which a number would be self supporting.

"Sunset Years"

Mr. Premier, I realize the tremendous burden that our governments are called upon to contribute towards social security, but, I have always believed that our elder citizens should be given every consideration in the "sunset years" of their lives. May I say your government has done much in the way of paying hospital insurance premiums and medical care, etc. I also believe that every citizen should realize that he must also contribute to that security he expects when he reaches that certain age.

In 1935, Mr. Mackenzie King, the former prime minister, made a pledge to the Canadian people and I quote:

"The Liberal Party recognizes that the problem of distribution has become more important than that of production and believes that personality is more sacred than property. It will devote itself to finding ways and means of effecting a fair and just distribution of

General Pearkes Calls For Development Of Natural Resources For Defence

Many of his constituents in this area listened to Major-General G. R. Pearkes, V.C., member of parliament for Nanaimo, speak over the CBC national network in the "Nation's Business Broadcast" on Tuesday evening, May 23.

Defence was the subject of the General's talk and he outlined the growing threat of Russian Communism to the democratic world generally.

The speaker pointed out that should war ever break out again, raw materials from which armaments might be manufactured, would be in great demand. Supply of such materials in the United States are showing signs of becoming exhausted.

wealth with increasing regard to human need, to the furtherance of social justice and the promotion of the common good", and 13 years later the present prime minister, Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, stated:

"We will not be satisfied until, in co-operation with the provincial governments, we have achieved a national standard of social security and human welfare which assures the greatest possible measure of social justice to all Canadians."

In writing you these lines I do so with the thought that we, as elected representatives, must do all we can to bring to our people the security to which they are entitled.

I feel sure, Mr. Premier, you will play your part in bringing about this social change for the benefit of all our older citizens.

Yours very sincerely,

ARTHUR J. R. ASH.

VENTILATORS AT FAIR

A British firm is exhibiting, at the Canadian International Trade Fair, actual models of some of its industrial ventilators, which can be built up to form a comprehensive system of ventilation to suit the varying needs of industrial premises and ensure healthy and congenial conditions for the workers. This firm will also show its "constant flow" draughtless domestic ventilator, which has been widely employed in Britain for post-war prefabricated and traditional housing schemes.

"WILL YOU WALK INTO MY PARLOUR?"

Now there's a nice cosy invitation—and it's being offered to us every day by the theory boys who would like to see the government providing everything (out of our money). But there's as big a catch in it for us, as there was for the fly.

Because before you have anything, somebody has to produce it. And why should someone produce it for you unless you also produce something of equal value to give him in return.

You know the answer to that—he won't.

That's why you know that people who promise you an easy future, with "more pay for less production" are simply talking through their hats.

Here's the hard, plain fact: you can only be paid out of what you produce in goods or services—there's no other place for wages to come from.

Plans for a better world in the future are fine but they will all be doomed to failure unless they're founded on this fact—all the wishful thinking in the world can't change that.

In the final analysis the only one who can make this a better world for you, with true security, is yourself. And if you wish, under our present opportunity system you have the privilege of producing a better service or place of goods and as a consequence drawing a larger wage for it.

While nobody claims that this system is perfect, it is still the only system that allows the individual the opportunity to choose his job; live where he pleases; make the best use of his abilities to get along in the world and hold his head up as an independent and free person.

That's the way to security.

SIDNEY LEGIONNAIRES WIN AND LOSE IN LEAGUE GAMES

In two recent league battles, Sidney Legionnaires dropped a 7-1 decision to Oak Bay baseball club but followed up to defeat Beacon Taxi by 6-5.

Loss in Victoria Cold, wet and windy — those were the conditions Sidney Legionnaires played under when they fumbled their way to defeat at the hands of the Oak Bay ball club by a score of 7 to 1 last Wednesday.

Eddie Corbett, pitching in his first game for Sidney, showed much promise and with more experience and coaching he should develop into a fine ball player. Corbett gave up only five hits but still weak and some of the infielders seem to be unsure about what to do with the ball.

P. Beck, on the mound for Oak Bay, had a good fast ball that kept Sidney batters waving at nothing. Ron Pearson, Jack Patterson were the only two Legion men able to connect for a base hit.

The Line-Ups Oak Bay—B. Lindall, C. A. Dawe 1b, D. Tolson 2b, B. Auchincloss 3b, N. Crisp cf, N. Webster ss, D. Hales rf, P. Smith lf, P. Beck p. Noel, sub.

Sunday Victory Close to 300 people were on hand Sunday in Sidney to watch Sidney Legionnaires squeeze out a 6-5 win over Beacon Taxi from Victoria. The game was closely contested right up to the last pitch when Beacon Taxi had the bases loaded with the winning runs. That's when relief pitcher Eddie Corbett blazed his fast ball past for three strikes, winning the game for Sidney and starting pitcher Herb Steele.

Sidney's infield proved to be a stronger unit with Tom Cormack playing third base. The results of a lot of practice and instruction came to light when the Legion boys pulled off two double plays in Sunday's game. Dave Peddle looked good in left field. Jack Patterson was hitting well as was Ron Pearson.

Beacon Taxi piled up a three-run lead in the first inning with a walk, a hit and a home run by B. Sam, one of the two Chinese members of Victoria's team. Sidney came right back in the same inning to bring in five runs, all earned on the wild pitching of P. Kirchner. Relief pitcher Fawcett for the Taximen held Sidney down by giving up only three hits and allowing one run.

The boys have been giving the crowd good ball games each week with the promise of better ones to come as the schedule advances. The Sidney team, sponsored by the local branch of the Canadian Legion, is grateful to the supporters who donate each week when the collection is made at the park, for only on this collection can the team continue playing.

Next Sunday at the Memorial Park the Sidney nine will meet Oak Bay.

Appreciation of the high quality of local bulbs was expressed by an American visitor last week. Mr. Samuelson, representative of the Chicago Garden and Farm Supply Company, George Ball, Inc., was a visitor at Woodridge Bulb Farm in Brentwood, accompanied by Otto Van Reis and Mr. Van Zanten, Washington bulb growers, he toured the Brentwood bulb establishment and visited a number of farms, both here and up-Island.

Iris growers of the area are becoming known for clean, disease-free stocks, he stated. After the Washington floods of about two years ago, Ray Woodridge was told, bulb growers were supplied with a quantity of Vancouver Island propagating stock. The growers there were impressed with the quality.

The visitors left after giving a substantial order for local bulbs.

CARD PARTY AND DANCE AIDS QUEEN A PROGRESSIVE "500" card party and dance in aid of Alma Kaye for May Queen was held in Kuford Community Hall on Friday, May 19. There were eight tables of cards, the winners being: Ladies' first, Mrs. A. Crowder; second, Mrs. J. Bennett, Jr.; ladies' consolation, Miss N. Harrison; gent's first, L. Drummond; second, C. Hamilton; gent's consolation, W. Stewart.

About 100 attended the dance which followed the cards. Mr. Hayward and Mrs. Stewart supplied the music. The proceeds of the evening were $55.

BEQUESTS OF SIR RICHARD LAKE Will of the late Sir Richard Stuart Lake, of Deep Cove, leaves an estate of $105,724. Former lieutenant-governor of Saskatchewan, Sir Richard passed away in Victoria, April 23.

A sum of $10,000 and the income from the residue of the estate is to go to Lady Lake during her lifetime. On her death, the residue is to be divided equally between his five sons, who were also left $5,000 each. A grandson is to receive $500.

IDENTIFIED AS RAT-FISH When Major Moilllette returned to Canoe Cove Shipyard from a brief fishing trip recently he brought back a denizen of the deep that was unrecognizable to the fishing fraternity. The lack of immensity in size was more than counterbalanced by the unnecessary appearance. Major Moilllette acquired of Dr. Clifford Carl, curator of the provincial natural history museum, who identified the creature as a male rat-fish.

Progress on the grounds at the park is good. It remains to grade and level off the field for which arrangements are now in hand. Joe Taylor reported that he had no positive information on the proposed cycle race for Sidney on Wednesday, July 19, but that he was in communication with the Victoria Cycle Club and other interested bodies.

The program for Sidney Day is gradually taking shape, but to date it has not been settled.

Improvement Is Shown

Come as the schedule advances. The Sidney team, sponsored by the local branch of the Canadian Legion, is grateful to the supporters who donate each week when the collection is made at the park, for only on this collection can the team continue playing.

NEW MEMBERS FARM STAFF

Activity at the Dominion Experimental Station at Saanichton increases during the summer months. The growing season is the busy season. Among the newcomers to assist the staff in their increased labors are a number of students from the University of British Columbia. These gentlemen are all engaged in the study of agriculture in its various phases and take advantage of the long summer vacation to further their practical experience.

Among the present temporary staff is Gordon Webster. Mr. Webster is a member of the staff at the station but is on leave while attending U.B.C. A graduate of that institution he is studying for his master's degree. Mr. Webster joined the staff of the station in 1949 after having completed his course and gained his degree as Bachelor of Science in Agriculture. He is engaged in the study of soils and plant nutrition.

A native of Kindersley, Sask., Mr. Webster enlisted in the R.C.A.F. in 1939. He was attached to Ferry Command and remained with that command until the end of the war. He left the service in 1945 with the rank of corporal.

Upon being discharged from the forces to take a course at the U.B.C. and gained his degree. He was stationed at the Saanichton farm, from which he has been granted leave of absence to study for his next degree. He has completed his first of two years.

Comes From Aldergrove
A second member of the staff to arrive from the same university is Bob Warkenton. Mr. Warkenton has completed his third year for his bachelor's degree. He is a native of Aldergrove, B.C. Both newcomers will return to the university in September to pursue a final year of study.

Municipal Tax Aid To Schools Aim Of Chamber

Recommendation was made recently by the Saanich Chamber of Commerce that part of the funds made available to municipalities from the Social Security and Municipal Aid Tax, be allocated mandatorily to school boards.

The Saanich Chamber claims, "A great number of municipalities receiving such funds have placed them in general revenue, and withheld any assistance to the school districts within the district, using such funds solely for municipal purposes, thereby giving no relief to school districts." One-third of the proceeds from this tax goes to the councils in the province. Although it has been stated by cabinet ministers that part of this money should be allocated to the schools in the area there is no compulsion exerted on the municipalities that this should be so. The chamber urges that legislation be passed making it mandatory that at least half of the monies be passed on to the school boards.

Church Members Aid Flood Fund

During the regular weekly service of the Sidney Adventist church, members voted unanimously to join the community in the Winnipeg Flood Fund. Mrs. Carle Janke was asked to take $100 from the local church funds. Other contributions increased the total to just over $130.

Miss Hazel Henderson, R.N., reports that Miss M. Pages, R.N., recently of Sydney, Australia, will be the secretary-treasurer of the local Missionary Volunteer Society and Herbert Goertzen will act as chorister for the society.

The Seventh-day Adventist church held their annual picnic, May 24. A large attendance was experienced. The entertainment and "cats" committee were commended for the well-planned outing.

Pastor C. C. Weiss, executive secretary of the Canadian Temperance Society, was the guest speaker at the local Seventh-Day Adventist church, May 20. His theme was "Prayer." He emphasized the importance of prayer but stated "we should not instruct the Lord 'how' to answer our prayers."

Runway Testing Rig Leaves Airport

Aerodrome testing at Patricia Bay has now come to an end and the test-rig was despatched to Vancouver on Wednesday of last week.

The results of the tests have not been released, but their significance assumes greater proportions in view of the recent references to the possibility of the extension of the runway.

The tests have been under way since last fall. During the harsh winter they were suspended. The equipment consisted of a large mobile tank, which is parked on the area to be tested. Underneath the tank weights many tons. A jack is lowered and its thrust is measured. The indentation of the surface at different jacking forces is read against the pressure exerted. This gives an indication of the compressibility of the foundation of the runway. Many residents of North Saanich have been employed on the undertaking and a number have left for Vancouver to continue the tests on mainland airports.

DISTRIBUTION OF APPLES

Distribution of the 50,000 cases of Canadian apples, a gift from the British Columbia Tree Fruits Corporation for British school children, is now almost complete. Areas to which apples have been allocated include Manchester, Liverpool, Glasgow, Cardiff, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Birmingham, Middlesbrough and London, and Belfast. The plan is to give children about one pound a head.

Army DUKWS Rescue Stranded Civilians

Five hundred and sixty Red River Valley flood refugees—12 of them sick—were rescued from a C.N.R. relief train marooned by a washout 15 miles south of Winnipeg. Five DUKWS operated by the Navy and manned by naval and army personnel ferried the refugees, who included 150 children, to a second relief train, which took them to Dauphin, Man. One of the DUKWS is shown in the above photo during the transfer of flood victims, which took five hours to complete.

BEST PART OF THE TRIP

Is Returning To An Island Home

(By Muriel D. Wilson)

It's extraordinary how one's values can change in a short space of time. Four years ago it would have taken more than the prospect of a week's holiday to entice us. Now the anticipation of a tiny trip to Vancouver Island fills us with excitement. Perhaps it's partly due to the past winter being so savage, together with the fact that we have not been away from "Solimar" on Salt Spring Island since before Christmas. I think, though, it's because our values have changed. Finding joy in small things is one of the compensations of country living.

The trip began on a Friday morning when we put the suitcases in the car and drove down the little lane towards the main road. Our first destination was to be Lake Cowichan to visit a married daughter. We detoured through the little sea-side city of Sidney, on the Saanich Peninsula. Here was April in all her loveliness—gardens spilling over with the gold of daffodils, "ten thousand saw I at a glance", the soft pinkness of peach blossoms and the flowing pale green lace of weeping willow trees. It was a picture to store up against a future gray day.

April Snowstorm
The drive to Brentwood (where we embarked on the Mill Bay ferry) was a series of peaceful pastoral scenes—black soil freshly ploughed, green meadows with white sheep and brown cows quietly grazing, little bright-roofed homes with tiny garden patches and diapers on the clotheslines, large stately homes with big, pompous barns. The road from Duncan to Lake Cowichan was a delight, a wide, smooth black ribbon of a road—winding through forest, hemmed by towering mountains. At the end, the busy little village of Lake Cowichan. We awoke Saturday morning to a world covered with a blanket of fresh snow, and fat flakes of the white stuff still falling steadily—no matter, the little house was warm with love and the joy of reunion, and gay with garden flowers brought from Salt Spring. The snow was apparently just one of April's little jokes, by noon she'd called the whole thing off and for the rest of our stay dispensed only sunshine.

We left Monday for Victoria, choosing the route over the scenic Malahat Mountain. Fortunately it was a clear bright day; from the summit the panoramic view is one of the most impressive in this part of the country—deep blue sea studded with innumerable islands, dark wooded mountain sides rising out of the ocean. The snow-capped Olympic Range stood out against an azure sky. Mount Baker, mother of North West mountains towered above them all. The sun painted her snowy tips a deep rose color.

Victoria—beautiful Victoria, all ruffly pink with cherry blossoms, gay with yellow broom and multi-colored flowering shrubs, flamboyant with the intense gold and purple of rocky flowers.

Window Shopping

After the quietness of "Solimar" it was fun to rub elbows with the crowds. It was a luxury to sit on a high stool and eat delectable sundaes or sip sodas; a treat to browse for three hours in my favorite book store. We'd almost forgotten the fascination of window shopping; especially intriguing were the windows of the French Pastry Shop, the delicatessen, and the millinery shops. Theatre, music and people, they all delight us. We discovered we are more easily pleased than in days of yore.

By the end of the week, with bodies rested and minds stimulated, we began to think of our island home. The garden we had planted would be coming up, I wanted to see my particular bit of sky and sea. Our zest for people, payments and night life had waned—now a little seemed to go a long way. Did I hear you say something about old age? Well perhaps you are right. It was a short holiday but with no reluctance at all we headed the car toward home and the old general store. We'd leave the city to the ambitious success seekers. We'll be satisfied with the silver of the moon and the gold that gilds our summer sky.

It was nice being away but do you know what? The very best part was driving back through the big gate with the sign that says: "Solimar."

BIGGEST FISH GOT AWAY

Jimmy Gilbert, Brentwood boat-builder and Don Royston were out in the Saanich Arm recently. Their catch included four salmon and a blueback. The satisfaction of the fishermen with their catch was clouded by the recollection of the monster fish that got away.

In the course of their fishing they observed a black triangular form sliding ahead of them. It was a basking shark and apparently a very weary one. After a violent change of course the boat lay alongside the great fish. Mr. Royston thought quickly and tied a 25-foot rope to the gaff-hook. With scarcely an effort he reached over the side of the boat and gaffed the shark.

The creature lashed his tail and spun the boat completely around. In the meantime he disappeared into the depths with the gaff and 25 feet of rope.

The fishermen are now talking of the "one that got away."

Firemen's Funds Are Boosted By Substantial Sum

Guests at the home of Cmdr. F. B. Leigh and Miss Jane Leigh, Beacon Ave., Sidney, were greeted on Saturday evening, May 20, by a large query mark. The mark was attached to an enquiry as to the cost of leaving the house. There was no answer to that question until Cmdr. Leigh had ascertained the amount raised. It proved that the cost of leaving was nearly $400.

The occasion was the annual social evening held by the Commander and Miss Leigh in aid of the funds of the Sidney Volunteer Fire Department. The host is the secretary-treasurer of the department, and announced that $380 was raised during the evening. He greeted his guests dressed as a bookie. All guests were invited to guess his weight. Mrs. A. O. Berry made the nearest guess and was awarded the prize.

A cake was won by W. J. Wakefield, who was busy during the evening serving refreshments, assisted by A. A. Cormack and R. Anderson. Mrs. B. Bath won a Scotch doll, and J. C. Anderson finished the evening with a goliwog. The goliwog's name was Wilhelmina and Mr. Anderson had suggested Wistaria. His was the nearest. Mrs. R. N. Shanks successfully guessed the location of a fire on a large map of Sidney.

Cmdr. Leigh expressed his sincere thanks to all who attended and particularly to those who participated in making the evening a success.
